Q8: Have you ever been involved in any animal protection issues?	NO
Q9: Do you have, or have you had in the past, any companion animals that have had an impact on you?	YES, Comments                      I grew up with 2 family cats, a Siamese named, "Chrystal" and a calico named, "Button." They were sweet and lovable friends, As an adult, you know how it is -- Did the dog rescue us or did we rescue the dog? His name was Sparky, and he liked to curl up in the fireplace, because we never built fires in our fireplaces. He was a black shepherd/lab mix who loved to frolic, yes frolic! in the snow in Massachusetts.

Q10: Do you financially or philosophically support any local or national animal protection organizations?	YES,  If so, which ones? Philosophically, yes. 100%. Financially, only occasionally. - Humane Society usually

PAGE 5: COMPANION ANIMALS

Q12: Would you support legislation to require registration, oversight and/or standards of care for animals in boarding facilities and breeding kennels?	YES

PAGE 6: ANIMAL CONTROL

Q13: Do you believe that Arizona should have uniform animal control laws to prevent inhumane treatment of animals?	YES,  Comments All counties should be held to a standard of humane treatment of animals. Our counties are quite different from each other, so laws governing them must take those differences into consideration, and allow for appropriate levels of local control. Treating animals humanely may look different in Maricopa than in Cochise. The goal may be the same, while the tactics may be different.

PAGE 7: WILDLIFE AND HABITAT

Q14: Do you support a process that includes less than 1% of hunters &amp; anglers and limits the voice of a majority of Arizonans to participate in the Arizona Game &amp; Fish Commission appointment process?	NO,  Comments Strong solutions must include all stakeholders in developing the plan. Otherwise, the result will be weak.

PAGE 9: CITIZEN INITIATIVE PROCESS AND ANIMAL PROTECTION

Q17: Do you support Arizona's public initiative process? YES

Q18: If YES, what steps would you take to protect our public initiative process?

a 6/10 cent sales tax for schools, First Things First for children - just 2 examples of important initiatives that improved the lives of all Arizonans. Our initiative process is very important to our quality of life. I will focus on making better jobs, public education with high standards, and keeping our workforce healthy. Those are the needs of the people of Arizona, and those should be priorities of legislators.

The voice of every person should be heard. I will fight for the rights of people to work together to make Arizona a better place.
