Page 6: ANIMAL CRUELTY LAW

Q14 Do you support strengthening Arizona's animal cruelty laws to correct loopholes that make it difficult to prosecute animal abusers?

YES,

Comments:

As a former Superior Court judge, I don't support mandatory sentencing laws that take discretion away from judges. The above statement seems to say that judges can't require defendants to deal with their issues of anger and lack of empathy if they are convicted of a Class 6 felony. That is not a factually accurate statement. I find that mandatory sentencing is often used by prosecutors as a tool in plea bargaining. I support strengthening these laws as long as judges have the final say in sentencing matters.
