Page 3: BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Q8

Have you ever been involved in any animal protection issues?

NO,

Comments:

Not in any meaningful way. My dog, Holly, is a senior rescue. When it was allowed, I participated in Calm The Canines for a couple of July 4th's and one New Years Eve. I've had a couple of rescues.

Q9

Do you have, or have you had in the past, any companion animals that have had an impact on you?

YES,

Comments:

My dog, Kali, and I had a incredibly strong connection. I'm not sure how to describe it, but it lasted until she died at 18.

Q10

Do you financially or philosophically support any local or national animal protection organizations?

YES,

If so, which ones?:

Only in a marginal way: Adopted my dog from Friends for Life (as did my daughter when she got a dog and a cat for her family).

Q11

If elected, would you be interested in sponsoring or working on legislation to protect animals?

Yes

Q13

Do you oppose a process that limits the voice of a majority of Arizonans to participate in the Arizona Game & Fish Commission appointment process?

YES

Q14

YES

Do you believe that the AZ Game and Fish Commission Appointment Recommendation Board should be repealed?

Page 6: CITIZEN INITIATIVE PROCESS AND ANIMAL PROTECTION

Q15

YES

Do you support Arizona's public initiative process?

Q16

If YES, what steps would you take to protect citizen initiatives?

I've been heavily involved in several initiatives (Save Our Schools, Invest in Ed, Outlaw Dirty Money/Stop Dark Money, Fair Election) and am very aware of some of the proposals that would make it much more difficult to meet the requirements to get a proposal to the voters (initiatives and referendums). I've specifically heard that the signatures must be reflect 10% of number required in each county instead of the threshold required just statewide. I would oppose those kinds of proposals; I would support getting a percentage of signatures online, like is available for candidates using E-qual. I've lost count of how many times I've answered the question, "can I just sign this online?"
